53. The Directors may, subject to the quorum and voting requirements in these Articles, authorise any matter which relates to a situation in which a Director (the "Relevant

Director") has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of British Basketball and which would, if not so authorised or otherwise permitted, result in a breach of duty by the Relevant Director under section 175 of the 2006 Act (a "Conflict").

54. Any Director (including the Relevant Director) may propose that a Conflict be authorised by the Directors. Such proposal and any authorisation given by the Directors shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

55. In connection with any proposal that a Conflict be authorised by the Directors, the Relevant Director must disclose to the Directors:

55.1 the nature and extent of the Conflict, including the nature and extent of the interest of the Relevant Director;

55.2 such additional information known to the Relevant Director in relation to the Conflict as is necessary to enable the Directors to decide whether or not to authorise the Conflict; and

55.3 such additional information known to the Relevant Director in relation to the Conflict as the Directors may request in connection with the decision of the Directors whether or not to authorise the Conflict.

56. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict:

(ii) impose upon the Relevant Director such other terms for the purpose of dealing with the Conflict as it may determine.

(together "Relevant Terms");

56.2 the Relevant Director will be obliged to comply with any Relevant Terms and any failure to comply with Relevant Terms by the Relevant Director will, unless such failure is authorised by the Directors, result in the cessation of any authorisation by the Directors of the Conflict on the Relevant Terms;

56.3 the Directors may decide that where the Relevant Director obtains or has obtained (in connection with the Conflict and otherwise than through his position as a Director of British Basketball) information that is confidential to a third party, the Director will not be obliged to disclose that information to British Basketball, or to use or apply the information in relation to the Company's affairs;

- 56.4 the authorisation may extend to any actual or potential Conflict which can reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict which has been authorised;
- 56.5 the Relevant Terms must be recorded in writing and notified to the Relevant Director (but the authority will be effective whether or not the Relevant Terms are so recorded and notified);
- 56.6 the Directors may revoke or vary the authorisation at any time but this will not affect anything done by the Relevant Director in accordance with the Relevant Terms prior to such revocation or variation and notice of any such revocation or variation will be given to the Relevant Director (but such revocation or variation shall be effective whether or not such notice is given); and
- 56.7 subject to the Relevant Terms, the Relevant Director or any interested Director shall be considered Eligible Director(s) for the purposes of these Articles in respect of any decision to be taken by the Directors following the authorisation of the Conflict and for the avoidance of doubt, the Relevant Director and any interested Director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any such decision and if they do vote their vote will be counted and they will be taken into account in ascertaining whether or not a quorum is present.

COMMITTEES

- 58. The Committees can include, but will not be limited to those focusing on, performance, commercial, technical, finance and audit.
- 59. Terms of delegation by the Board must be recorded in the minute book of the Board.
- 60. The Board may impose conditions when delegating, including, but not necessarily limited to, conditions that:

- 60.1 the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the Committee to whom the Board delegates; and
- 60.2 no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of British Basketball except in accordance with a budget and virement previously agreed with the Board.
61. A Committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate meetings in accordance with the Committee's terms of reference which will be determined by the Board. The terms of reference will, amongst other matters, determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business.
62. The Board may also form and constitute Committees for the purpose of considering any particular policy or aspect of policy in relation to British Basketball, or in relation to the discharging of the Objects.
63. The Board may revoke or alter a delegation to a Committee, terminate a Committee, remove individuals from a Committee or change the terms of reference of a Committee at their discretion.
64. All acts and proceedings of any such Committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the Board.

MINUTES

65. The Board must keep minutes of all:
- 65.1 Appointments of all Directors made by the Board including Nominated Directors;
- 65.2 Proceedings at General Meetings of British Basketball;
- 65.3 Meetings of the Board and Committees including:
- (i) the names of the persons present at the meeting;
 - (ii) the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - (iii) where appropriate the reasons for the decisions.
66. Any minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of that meeting, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without further proof of the facts stated in such minutes.
67. The minutes of General Meetings may be inspected at all reasonable times by any Member.

68. The minutes of the Board, and of any Committee appointed by the Board, may be inspected at any time by the Directors. Members of a Committee who are not Directors may inspect the minutes of that Committee and those minutes of the Board that relate to the establishment and powers of that Committee. The Board may resolve that a named person may inspect such of their minutes or the minutes as shall be specified in the resolution.
69. No one shall have any right to inspect the minutes of the Board or a Committee established except as set out in the Articles.

REGULATIONS

70. The Board may from time to time make such reasonable and proper regulations as it may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of British Basketball, its objects, powers and responsibilities and may add to, repeal or vary any such regulations. All regulations so made, and for the time being in force, shall be binding on all Members and all persons or entities under the regulatory jurisdiction of British Basketball. Regulations may concern the following subjects, but are not restricted to them:
- 70.1 the admission of Members of British Basketball and the rights and privileges of Members, and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by Members;
- 70.2 the procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Board and Committees insofar as such procedure is not regulated by the Articles;
- 70.3 the conduct of Members in relation to one another, and to British Basketball's employees and volunteers;
- 70.4 any other subjects which the Articles provide may be covered by Regulations;
- 70.5 generally all such matters as are commonly the subject of company rules or bye laws provided that no regulation shall contravene any of the provisions of the Articles or the Act.
71. The Board must adopt such means as it thinks sufficient to bring the regulations and bye laws relating to its Objects, powers and responsibilities to the notice of Members of British Basketball.

72. The regulations or bye laws relating to its Objects, powers and responsibilities shall be binding on all Members. No regulation or bye law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal, anything contained in the Articles.

GENERAL MEETINGS

73. British Basketball shall, in each year, hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings of Members in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it. Not more than fifteen (15) months may elapse between successive Annual General Meetings.
74. The Board, or the Chairman, may whenever it or he thinks fit call a General Meeting. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum any Director may call a General Meeting.
75. On the requisition of at least 2 (two) Member, the Board shall proceed to convene a General Meeting. If the Board fails to do so, any Director, or the Members requisitioning the General Meeting, may do so.
76. All meetings of Members, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called General Meetings.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

77. A General Meeting shall be called by at least fourteen (14) clear days' notice.
78. A General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is unanimously agreed by Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting.
79. The notice shall contain a statement setting out the rights of Members to appoint a representative for the meeting.
80. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
81. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted and in the case of an Annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such.
82. All Members are entitled to attend a General Meeting of British Basketball.

83. Notice shall be given to:
- 83.1 all Members;
 - 83.2 the Directors;
 - 83.3 the Auditors;
 - 83.4 any other body entitled to receive notice.
84. Notice of a General Meeting of British Basketball shall be given by such of the following means as the Board shall from time to time decide:
- 84.1 by sending written notice of the meeting by mail to the chairman or other appropriate officer of the Member at the last known address of such Member;
 - 84.2 by sending written notice of the meeting by electronic mail to the chairman or other appropriate officer of the Member to the last known email address of the chairman or other appropriate officer of the Member; and
 - 84.3 such other means as shall seem to the Board to be useful to inform Members.

For the avoidance of doubt the Board may use one such option to the exclusion of the others, or such combination of such options as it shall from time to time decide and a notice may be given partly by one means and partly by another. Notice shall for all purposes be deemed to be properly and sufficiently given to all Members entitled to receive it when given in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

85. For a resolution of Members to be passed, it must be agreed unanimously as between the Members in attendance at the General Meeting.
86. The quorum for a General Meeting is all 3 (three) Members (through their representatives) unless article 88 applies.
87. If, within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting, all three (3) Members are not present, or if during a meeting all three (3) Members cease to be present, the meeting shall be dissolved and shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week but if that day is not a Business Day, the meeting will be held on the next Business Day, at the same time and place, or to such day, time and place as the Chairman, or the Board, shall appoint.

88. If, within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for the adjourned meeting in accordance with article 87, all three (3) Members are not present, or if during a meeting all three (3) Members cease to be present, the meeting will continue and a quorum will be deemed to be present and business is then capable of being transacted.
89. The Chairman shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting or if he shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling to preside, the vice Chairman (if any) shall, if present and willing to act, preside as chairman failing which the Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of that meeting.
90. The chairman of any General Meeting may with the consent of those present at any meeting at (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
91. When a General Meeting is adjourned for fourteen (14) days or more, at least seven (7) clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise, it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
92. At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded by at least two Members present in person or by Proxy having the right to vote on the resolution. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or lost, or not carried, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the General Meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
93. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.
94. A poll shall be taken as the chairman of the meeting directs and he may appoint scrutineers and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the General Meeting at which the poll is demanded.

95. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a General Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the General Meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
96. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a General Meeting or on a question of adjournment.
97. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven (7) clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
98. A proposed written resolution of the Members pursuant to the Act lapses if it is not passed before the end of the period of sixty (60) days beginning with its circulation date (as defined in the said Act).
99. Every Member shall have one vote.
100. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all monies presently payable by it to British Basketball have been paid.
101. An appointment of a Member representative (the "Representative Appointment Letter") shall be in the form of the draft in Schedule 1 to the Articles or so near thereto as circumstances permit and shall be signed by the chairman of the Member concerned and deposited at the Office or if the Board so decides at such other address as the Board shall specify not later than forty eight (48) hours before the start of the meeting or where the poll is to be taken later than forty eight (48) hours after it was demanded, twenty four (24) hours before the poll is to be taken or where a poll is to be taken less than forty eight (48) hours after it was demanded when it was demanded.
102. The Representative Appointment Letter must state the name and address of the Member appointing the representative, identify the person appointed to be the representative and the General Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed.

103. A Representative Appointment Letter must also be signed by the Chairman or another director of Member appointing the representative, or is authenticated in such manner as the Board may from time to time determine.
104. A Representative Appointment Letter may specify how the representative appointed under it is to vote (or that the representative is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolution.
105. Unless a Representative Appointment Letter indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - 105.1 allowing the person appointed under it discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meetings; and
 - 105.2 appointing that person as a representative in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the General Meeting itself.
106. An appointment under a Representative Appointment Letter may be revoked by delivering to the Office a notice in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Member on whose behalf the Representative Appointment Letter was given.
107. A Representative Appointment Letter only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of a meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
108. If a Representative Appointment Letter is not executed by the Chairman or another director of the Member appointing its representative, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointer's behalf.
109. If two or more people claim to represent the same Member at a General Meeting, the Chairman of the meeting shall decide which one person shall be considered as the Member's representative. The Chairman's decision on this matter shall be final.
110. No objection shall be raised as to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting, or adjourned meeting, at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
111. The business of the Annual General Meeting of British Basketball shall be inter alia:
 - 111.1 to receive the Annual Report;
 - 111.2 to receive the Annual Accounts;

111.3 to appoint the Auditors and settle their remuneration;

111.4 to transact any other business that is included on the notice calling the meeting.

112. No business shall be conducted at a General Meeting that is not specified in the notice calling the meeting.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE

113. The Chief Executive shall be appointed by the Board for such time, at such remuneration (as recommended and approved by the Remuneration Committee) and upon such conditions consistent with the provisions of the Articles as it may think fit, and any Chief Executive so appointed may be removed by it. The Chief Executive shall not be a Director and shall be accountable to the Chairman on behalf of the Board.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual General Meeting in every year the Board shall lay before the Members a proper income and expenditure account for the period since the last preceding account (or in the case of the first account since the incorporation of the Association) made up in accordance with any statutory provisions for the time being in force to a date which shall not in any event be more than seven (7) months before such meeting, together with proper balance sheet made up as at the same date. Proof that a notice contained in an electronic form was sent shall be conclusive where it can be shown that it was properly addressed and sent in accordance with section 1147 of the Act. A notice shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of forty eight (48) hours after the envelope containing it was posted or, in the case of a notice contained in an electronic form, at the expiration of forty eight (48) hours after the time it was sent.

The language to be used in the mediation shall be English.
